BELICH VILLAS

in San Pedro del Pinatar, Murcia

Belich is a new set of semi-detached villas in Lo Pagán, in the heart of the Costa Cálida. The villas are designed to take full advantage of natural light, so they have large windows in each of their 3 bedrooms. They also have semi-detached kitchen, furnished and equipped with appliances, 3 bathrooms, and several terraces, one of them with summer kitchen. It also has a private pool. Lo Pagán is a district from San Pedro del Pinatar, located in the north of Mar Menor, in Costa Cálida. Although traditionally it has been considered a touristic area, more and more people are moving here, attracted by the pleasant winter weather. The benefits of the mud baths, typical of the region, or the calm waters of the Mar Menor, have favored the growth of Lo Pagán, which currently has all kinds of amenities. Among its beaches include La Puntica or Los Barros. In addition, it has an excellent location, just 5 minutes from the Commercial Center Dos Mares, and 10 from San Javier airport.
